CLOSE OF SUCCESSFUL SCHOOL YEAR

To-Night's Commencement Exercises Will Mark Closing of the Most Successful Year in History of School

TEACHERS FOR NEXT YEAR WILL BE SELECTED TODAY

With the Commencement Exercises which take place this evening the week's activities connected with the closing of school will be complete. This will mark the closing of the most successful year in the history of the school. Careful management and extreme caution in the selection of faculty has been in a large measure responsible for the rapid advancement which has been made. The Board of Directors will meet today to select the corps of teachers for next year. A number have failed to make application for reelection and their places will have to be filled and possibly new teachers added to take care of the increased enrollment and the enlarged scope of the work in every department.

The afternoon of Tuesday was open house at the school building, and the display work of the various departments received much favorable comment. On every side were "eye openers" as to what pupils can do with efficient supervision.

The manual training specimens and the handwork of all departments created much favorable comment. At two thirty a programme was rendered, composed largely of pupils who have been neither absent nor tardy throughout the term of nine months. All acquitted themselves with credit.

Wednesday evening thirteen eighth graders received certificates of promotion to high school. These were, Sallie Johnson, Elmer Esker, Pink Roberts, Richard McDaniel, Erva Adams, Pearl Kennedy, Frankie Gray, Gordon Pine Sam Betha, Linza Brannum, Isabelle Tinnon, Florence Lacy, Willie Reilly. These promotion certificates were also awarded to Pearl Hyde, Perola Stevens, Laura Dalton, Lawrence Rowland and Homer Donaldson who have been doing part high school work this year.

Thursday evening the operetta "Marry Milkmaids" was performed with much credit. The audience followed with interest the musical development of the clever plot. The costumes were simple but attractive and some of the special make-up deserve especial commendation.

Tonight the graduation exercises bid to be of unusual interest. Hon. Rupert F. Asplund of Santa Fe will address the class on the subject of "Preparation and Preparedness" and will of course attach an educational significance to this military subject. A number of choruses and piano selections will be rendered and high school promotion certificates will be presented by the Principal, Mrs. Ethel V. Jewett.

We repeat in conclusion that Supt. McCurdy and his able corps of assistants have given a good account of themselves as is fully evidenced by the successful culmination of the year's work for the term 1915-16.

OSCURO

Last Wednesday afternoon between the hours of 2:30 and 4 the public was invited to view an exhibit of the work of the children of the Oscuro school. The exhibit was held at the school house and consisted of drawing, writing and spelling lessons of the lower grades—maps, compositions, paper cutting and folding by the intermediate grades and manual training, domestic science, maps, physiology charts and painting by the higher grades and high school pupils. Especially interesting features of the exhibit were the maps of the different states with samples of their principal products glued to them, the manual training work of the boys, consisting of windlasses, ferris wheels and miniature houses with cardboard furniture, the colored maps and paper folding work of the primary children and the domestic science work of the high school pupils, consisting of aprons, dresses and fancy work. The physiology charts showed that this branch of study was being taught with thoroughness and the younger pupils showed promise and ability as well as careful instruction in their spelling and arithmetic papers. The patrons of the school showed their interest and appreciation by turning out in goodly numbers, and all agreed that the exhibit did great credit to both teachers and pupils, and that it was the result of a very successful year's work.

Joe Ashford is serving his country by doing duty as foreman of the petit jury. The work of the jury will probably take two weeks until all cases before the Court are given a trial, so Joe will have a lengthy vacation.

There is a rumor afloat to the effect that a new mercantile company will soon start up in business in our burg.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Bryant are the proud parents of a son which arrived one day last week.

HOME MISSION MEETING

CIVIC LEAGUE DANCE

The dance given at the Railroad Men's Club House last evening by the ladies of the Civic League proved to be a success financially as well as every one present having a good time. $87.00 was cleared which the League expects to spend in cleaning up the town.

Mrs. J. M. Gardner and children left the first of the week for a few months' visit with her parents at Richmond, Virginia. She expects to return by way of Jackson, Michigan, where she will visit for a few weeks with Mr. Gardner's parents.

Tom Fitzpatrick returned from El Paso the first of the week where he has been attending school for the past year, and will remain here during the summer months.

HEARD AT THE NATIONAL CAPITOL

The Results of the Primary in the State of Ohio Have Cast a Gloom in the Democratic Ranks

RECENT PRIMARIES IN NEBRASKA LEFT SORE SPOT

Washington, D. C., May 14—(Special Correspondence)—The primary results in Ohio have filled the Republicans with glee and the Democrats with corresponding gloom. The fact that nearly 25,000 Democrats in that state voted for Frank Moonett, who was known to be opposed to the policies of the present National administration, caused consternation among the Democrats of the Ohio delegation.

Another discouraging feature of the Ohio primaries is the fact that Senator Pomerene, who is a candidate for reelection, polled the least votes of any of the candidates for delegate. He was some 14,000 behind former Governor Cox. It is freely predicted at the capitol that Ohio voters will swing back to the Republican party and the recent primaries point unmistakably to this outcome.

According to gossip about the capitol, the recent primaries in Nebraska left a lot of soreness and bitterness in the ranks of the Democrats. Visitors from that state and men in Washington who are in touch with the situation there, say that the Bryan and anti-Bryan forces are already in each others hair and that it means but one outcome at the general election next November—that the state will give its vote to the Republican electors and that a United States Senator of that political faith will be elected. There is also an indication of Republican gains in the congressional delegation.
